Education Leaders to Address Education Funding Crisis in California

Media Availability Following State of the State Address

On Wednesday, January 18, 2012, California Federation of Teachers (CFT) President Joshua Pechthalt, and Secretary-Treasurer Jeff Freitas will be available in Sacramento to comment on the 2012 budget, education policy, and taxing the top 1%. The CFT is helping lead a coalition (Restore California) that is proposing a “millionaires’ tax” initiative for the 2012 ballot that would provide several billion dollars to fund public education and other key programs.
