On Tuesday, January 12, the California Federation of Teachers (CFT) will outline its views of the governor's proposed education budget, his proposed constitutional amendment, as well as California's plan for Race to the Top at a Sacramento news conference.

"A 'Fight for California's Future' is required in order to force Governor Schwarzenegger and the Legislature to properly address the lack of funding for education and other vital public services in 2010," said CFT President Marty Hittelman. "And we are going to work to make that happen."
