New Ad to Feature Pink-slipped LA Teacher:
“I may not see my students this fall. Before I look for another job, I have something to say....”

The California Federation of Teachers (CFT) and United Teachers Los Angeles (UTLA) will unveil a radio ad on Monday regarding the current California state budget crisis.

The ad campaign features pink-slipped seventh-grade math and science teacher Julie Van Winkle, who says in part in the ad, “I may not see my students this fall. I have been given a pink slip due to state budget cuts. But before I look for another job, I have something to say....”

To hear Van Winkle’s powerful message to the governor and legislators, please join us:

When: Monday, June 22, at 11:30am
